Report of Study Visit

The Department of Commerce organized an educational study visit to Accountancy Museum of India, Shivaji University, Kolhapur on Wednesday, 18 March 2026 for the students of B.Com.

The visit was arranged to provide academic exposure regarding the history and development of accounting practices. During the visit, the students observed various historical records, accounting tools, documents, and exhibits related to the evolution of accounting systems in India. The officials and staff members of Accountancy Museum of India provided detailed information about the exhibits and explained the importance of accounting in business and economic development. The students actively interacted and gained valuable practical knowledge through the visit.

Prof. Abhijeet Kamble and Prof. D. S. Jadhav accompanied the students during the study visit and guided them throughout the visit.

The study visit proved to be highly informative, educational, and beneficial for the students of the Commerce Department.
